Tanya Ridino and Erin Bell at the Self-Help Legal Access Center ("SHLA") are proud to celebrate our third year of community service in Mendocino County.

We offer FREE assistance with restraining orders, small claims litigation, guardianships, family law and other legal matters. SHLA and its staff are proud to have helped so many people access the justice system, and look forward to serving the community for years to come.

The SHLA Center is open in Room 304 of the Ukiah Courthouse Monday through Thursday from 12 to 4 PM. A Ft. Bragg clinic operates every 2nd Friday of the month also from 12 to 4 PM. New "videophone" service now offered Monday through Thursday from 4 to 5PM.
